

BEYOND THE IMPRESSIONISTS: Art in France 1890-1910

An Art Study Day
with
Andrew Forrest

The Village Hotel, Bournemouth

Sunday 19th May 2019

Andrew is an artist, lecturer and author. He will explore the work of artists living and working in France at the turn of the 19th and beginning of the 20th century. The art scene was vibrant at this time in France, from the salons of Paris to the art studios of Provence. As well as impressionism new movements including post-impressionism, expressionism, cubism, symbolism and fauvism were making an impact.

The day will be illustrated with works by artists such as Van Gogh, Cézanne, Gauguin, Toulouse-Lautrec, Picasso and Braque.

Programme notes will be provided.

The Village Hotel is opposite the Royal Bournemouth Hospital and has free parking.

Fee: £34 including tea, coffee and a buffet lunch.
